

Your Body Your Breasts

Episode 10: The Pleasure Principle

JOURNAL YOUR JOURNEY

Do you know your comfort zone? It is at the edge or center?

In what ways might your comfort zone be holding you back? Restraining you?

In what ways does staying in your comfort zone allow you to have a sense of safety? After you reflect on that, can you identify anything that may not be serving you (meaning that “safety” isn’t required in that instance)?

What does pleasure mean to you? Write out all the ways you bring pleasure into your life. What ways do you receive pleasure?

What types of pleasure would you love to have more of?

What emotions are attached to your pleasure?

Notes from The 3 Fphs

Notes from Mind Food

Notes from Your Emotional Brew

After watching this episode, how does your mindset about pleasure need to shift? And how will this shift improve your health?
